EWING TOWNSHIP SUSTAINABLE GREEN TEAM

COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS: PRESERVING OUR PRESENT, TRANSFORMING OUR FUTURE

Α	G	F	N	D	Α

9:00am Introductions Presentation on Sustainability Presentation on Sustainability Presentation Presentation Overview of Agenda and setting Ground Rules 9:45 am Presentation 1: A Sustainable Community Overview of Agenda and setting Ground Rules Presentation Present	Time	Activity
9:15am Presentation on Sustainability 9:30 am Sustainable Jersey presentation 9:45 am Break 10:00 am Conversation 1: A Sustainable Community • What are the attributes of a healthy, sustainable community? • What are the attributes of a healthy, sustainable community? • This conversation will focus on creating a shared definition of community sustainability. This does not need to be specific to Ewing. Attributes may be related to the environment, culture, education, economics, arts, etc. 10:15 am • What are Ewing's sasets? • What are Ewing's challenges? • This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. 10:40 am Group Report • Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:10 am Break 11:10 am Where are your values as a community? • What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? • Where are your values as a community? • What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? • Development of Key Performance Areas • Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report • As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area • Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area.
9:30 am 9:40 am 9:40 am 9:45 am 8 Break 10:00 am Conversation 1: A Sustainable Community • What are the attributes of a healthy, sustainable community? • This conversation will focus on creating a shared definition of community sustainability. This does not need to be specific to Ewing. Attributes may be related to the environment, culture, education, economics, arts, etc. 10:15 am Conversation 2: Community Scan • What are Ewing's assets? • What are Ewing's challenges? • This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. 10:40 am Group Report • Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:00 am Break Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation • Where are your values as a community? • What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? • What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? • Development of Key Performance Areas • Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report • As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break − During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area • Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area.
9:40 am 9:45 am 8reak Conversation 1: A Sustainable Community • What are the attributes of a healthy, sustainable community? • This conversation will focus on creating a shared definition of community sustainability. This does not need to be specific to Ewing. Attributes may be related to the environment, culture, education, economics, arts, etc. 10:15 am Conversation 2: Community Scan • What are Ewing's assets? • What are Ewing's challenges? • This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. Group Report • Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:00 am Break Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation • Where are your values as a community? • What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? • What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? • Development of Key Performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report • As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area • Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area.
9:45 am 10:00 am 10:0
10:00 am
What are the attributes of a healthy, sustainable community? This conversation will focus on creating a shared definition of community sustainability. This does not need to be specific to Ewing. Attributes may be related to the environment, culture, education, economics, arts, etc. 10:15 am Conversation 2: Community Scan What are Ewing's assets? What are Ewing's challenges? This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. 10:40 am Group Report Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:00 am Break Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break — During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area.		Break
O This conversation will focus on creating a shared definition of community sustainability. This does not need to be specific to Ewing. Attributes may be related to the environment, culture, education, economics, arts, etc. 10:15 am Conversation 2: Community Scan What are Ewing's cassets? What are Ewing's challenges? This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. 10:40 am Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:00 am Break Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break—During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports	10:00 am	Conversation 1: A Sustainable Community
This does not need to be specific to Ewing. Attributes may be related to the environment, culture, education, economics, arts, etc. Conversation 2: Community Scan What are Ewing's sessets? This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. Group Report Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. Preak Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Itias5 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break — During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area.		 What are the attributes of a healthy, sustainable community?
10:15 am Conversation 2: Community Scan What are Ewing's assets? What are Ewing's challenges? This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. Group Report Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. Evaluate a conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports Group Reports		 This conversation will focus on creating a shared definition of community sustainability.
10:15 am Conversation 2: Community Scan What are Ewing's assets? What are Ewing's challenges? This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. To:40 am Group Report Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. Towersation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break — During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports		This does not need to be specific to Ewing. Attributes may be related to the
What are Ewing's assets? What are Ewing's challenges? This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. 10:40 am Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:00 am Break Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Oldentify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports		environment, culture, education, economics, arts, etc.
What are Ewing's challenges? This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. Group Report Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. Break Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports Group Reports	10:15 am	Conversation 2: Community Scan
 This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political. 10:40 am		What are Ewing's assets?
10:40 am Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:00 am Break 11:10 am Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation • Where are your values as a community? • What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? • What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? • Development of Key Performance Areas • Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report • As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area • Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports		What are Ewing's challenges?
10:40 am Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:00 am Break 11:10 am Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation • Where are your values as a community? • What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? • What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? • Development of Key Performance Areas • Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report • As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area • Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports		This discussion will focus on specific attributes of Ewing, be they physical, social, political.
Before we move on to Ewing specific conversations we will take a short break here and have groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. Break Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports	10:40 am groups do short reports on these broader areas of discussion. 11:00 am Break Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area.
11:10 am Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports
 Where are your values as a community? What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports 	11:00 am
 What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved? What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report	11:10 am	Conversation 3: Preservation/Transformation
 What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports 		Where are your values as a community?
 What are the elements of Ewing that you feel could go through a transformation? Development of Key Performance Areas Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group 11:55 Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports 		 What things about Ewing are so important to you that you feel they must be preserved?
Development of Key Performance Areas Oldentify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports
o Identify the performance area that most of your values fall into, whether they are preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report • As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break − During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area • Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports preservation or transformation values is not important. 11:35 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports Group Reports		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
11:35 pm Group Report As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports
 As groups report back we will track the key performance areas identified by each group Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports 	11:35 pm
11:55 Break – During this break facilitators will identify the top 5 or 6 key performance areas (depending on suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area • Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports	• suggestions made by groups) and create tables for the attendees to return to. 12:10 pm Conversation 4: Key Performance Area Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports	11:55
 12:10 pm Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports
 Self-select into performance areas to suggest project ideas, action steps, goal setting, outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. Group Reports 	12:10 pm	Conversation 4: Key Performance Area outreach/education ideas. If you are interested in spearheading a project this would be a great place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports		•
place to suggest that project and suggest a first meeting date. • After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports
 After 15 minutes feel free to switch to another group so you can participate in more than one performance area. 12:40 Group Reports 		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
performance area. 12:40 Group Reports
12:40 Group Reports
	12:40
		Wrap-up – Just one word				